STUDY ABROAD AWARD APPLICATION

ESSAY:

The scholarships are awarded on both need and merit basis. Please attach along with this application a short, 2-page essay that outlines the following:

- Your personal background
- Reasons you wish to study abroad
- What you hope to gain
- Your goals for after study abroad
- Why you feel you deserve the awards for which you are applying

(If you submitted an essay for your study abroad application, you can add to the original essay.)

DEADLINES:

March 15th for the Summer/Fall prior to your travel abroad
December 15th for the Spring Break prior to your travel abroad

A student interested in applying for these scholarships must have turned in both a complete study abroad application and award application by the deadline to be considered for the scholarships.

To be eligible for a College of Agriculture Study Abroad Award, you must:

- 1) Have submitted a FAFSA form already.
- 2) Have submitted a Study Abroad Application.
- 3) Sign and date this form.
- 4) Return this form to IPIA, Room 26 AGAD, by the above deadline.

I hereby authorize the Division of Financial Aid to release my financial aid information to the office of International Programs in Agriculture, Room 26 Agricultural Administration Building.
