DEAN M. BEVERLEY STONE AWARD

Criteria for Selection

1. The recipient must serve in a COUNSELING relationship with Purdue students. Examples: Residence Hall Staff, House Parents, Student Services Staff, Dean of Students Staff, House Advisors, Coaches, Student Organization Advisors, etc. An academic advisor involved with a student group may be nominated, but the nomination must be based on non-academic counseling activities.
2. The recipient is to be judged by his/her counseling abilities, not by overall accomplishments. "Counseling ability" is defined as showing the traits of: personal concern, unselfish giving of time, an ever-listening ear, ability to advise but not dictate, serving as a "role" model to Purdue students, aiding and supporting students to become the best they may be, sharing love through service to Purdue students, aiding and supporting students to become the best they may be, sharing love through service to Purdue and its students, and constantly and consistently "going the extra mile" without thought of personal gain as shown by Dean Stone in her years at Purdue.
3. The recipient must be working with Purdue students at the time of the award presentation.
4. The recipient shall not have previously received the M. Beverley Stone Award. (Since its inception in 1980, this award has been given to Father Phil Bowers, Bill Luhman, Marion Blalock, Barbara Cook, Warren Luzadder, Jeff Wilson, Charles Rhykerd, Gregory Pierceall, Sandra Monroe, Cornell Bell, David Tate, Carol Dewey, George Spratto, Martha Fletcher, Nonnie Cameron, Sherry Fulk-Bringman, Linda Yoder, Winthrop Gustafson and Joanne Evers.)
